A = OriginDestinationOptions/OriginDestinationOption/FlightSegment/BookingClassAvail/RPH has been made an optional rather than a mandatory attribute, as it does pertain to our message usage.

B = Needed to add not valid before, not valid after, and endorsement attributes in FareType.

C = Some additional message attributes and elements have been added to meet customer requirements.

D = Added AllowAgencySale, DepartmentCode, and DepartmentNumber attributes. The intention is to propose these as additions to the base message.

E = Added several elements and attributes to message. The intention is to propose these as additions to the base message.
